

7 Dec 1883

8/3

Mr. Fred Smith, of Boonville, who has been buying hogs in these parts for some time past, drives a pair of spotted ponies to his buggy, and says he's the happiest man in all Missouri, just because its a boy, and weighs ten pounds.—Saline County Democrat.

Smith

On last Saturday, we understand that Mrs. Magdalena Faulhauber, a sister F. A. Stolsemberger, of Pilot Grove, died and was buried on Monday. It was rumored as a suicide, but the case, however, was not reported to the coroner, and we have no official facts of it.

Faulhauber
Stolsemberger

Died, in Blackwater township, Cooper county, Mo., November 30th, 1883, Mrs. Elizabeth Case, wife of Samuel S. Case, in her 64th year, born May 27th, 1830, was married July 1st, 1858. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Church South nearly fifty years.

Case

Charles Beard, formerly of this county, now of Tipton, was killed on Wednesday while working on a house at Tipton. From very meagre accounts, we only know as we go to press, that he fell from a house while working on it and was killed.

Beard