Aaron Wyatt, a veteran of the war of 1812, died at his home in Tebo township, Henry county, Mo., on Sunday. He was born in Roan county, N. C., May 17th, 1790, and was ninety-six years old. He was with Gen. Jackson in the war of 1812, and participated in the battle of New Orleans. He was probably the oldest resident of Southwest Missouri. He had lived in Henry county only twelve years, going there from Cooper county, Mo.