—Misses Birdie Brent and Fannie Thompson and Capt. Less Smith attended the Glasscock-Barnett wedding Tuesday.

Smith

—Rev. Alex Machette has been asked by his congregation to withdraw his resignation as pastor. We trust he will do so.

—The county court has been in session during the week, settling up at this their last meeting. Little of importance was transacted.

—Married, on the 15th inst., at Walnut Grove church, in Cooper county, Mo., by Elder O. P. Davis, Mr. Charles Henry Shirley and Miss Mary A. Davis, all of Cooper county, Mo.

Barnett
Glasscock

—Married, Tuesday, December 14th, 1886, by the Rev. H. B. Barks, in Lafayette county, Miss Hattie Barnett and Mr. Chas. L. Glasscock. The young couple will make their home in Sedalia.

Rennison

—Jos. E. Rennison, Jr., only son of Joseph Rennison, aged seventeen years, died Wednesday night of typhoid pneumonia. The funeral takes place to-day at 12 o'clock from his home near Prairie Lick, to Mt. Pleasant burying-ground.

—Mrs. A. D. Hopkins gave a very pleasant entertainment to the members of the Boonville orchestra at her home near this city Monday evening. The supper was a most excellent one and the evening was very enjoyable. Besides those in whose honor the entertainment was given Messrs. J. F. Adams and Morris Johnson were present from Boonville.

—Chas. C. Bell returned from Lexington with the State Horticultural Association in his pocket. He reported an excellent meeting and a good attendance. There were seven competitors for the next annual meeting of the Horticultural Association among them St. Joe, Kansas City and St. Louis. Boonville, however, succeeded in capturing the Association through the instrumentality of Mayor Bell and the next annual meeting will be held here.
