

MARRIED,

December 26, 1888, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Allee, of Moniteau county, Mr. Walter Toler, of Cooper, and Miss Minnie Allee. The bride is a granddaughter of Rev. Wilson Allee, of Moniteau county; the groom is a son of W. H. Toler, of Cooper county. Among those present, we noticed: Rev. Wilson Allee and wife, Robert Kemp and wife, Lyeurgus Dooley and wife, Misses Wood, Grisley and Birdsong, of Moniteau county; Miss Maggie Toler, Wm. Toler, and Nicholas Schmidt, of Cooper county. The attendants were Miss Birdsong and Wm. Toler. Rev. Shelton, of Moniteau county, officiated.

The next evening an excellent supper was given by the parents of the groom to those who were invited to attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Maggie, to Nicholas Schmidt, of Cooper county, at 6 o'clock, p. m., Thursday, December 27th, by Elder O. P. Davis. Those present were: James Jones and family, of Prairie Home; Thos. Shoemaker and wife, of California; Zachariah Shoemaker and wife, Levi Wood and family, Elijah Bales and wife, Henry Arnold and family, Leonard Schmidt and wife, Frank Langkope and family, Sam Fain and wife, Mr. Henry and wife, T. B. Anderson and wife, Misses Bettie Bales and Maggie Birdsong, Messrs. Jos. Davis, Minor Bales, Jacob Ritchie, Holbert and Jack Toler, Tilmar, Albert, and Charles Allee.

The attendants at the Schmidt-Toler wedding were Miss Bettie Bales and Holbert Toler, Miss Minnie Jones and Wm. Toler.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toler received a number of valuable presents, but we did not obtain a list of them. Among the presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Schmidt, we noted the following: Table linen by Mrs. Leonard Schmidt; set of silver table-spoons by James Jones; butter dish by Miss Bettie Bales, "Companion" by Mrs. Jones, set of glassware by Miss Lizzie Langkope, set of glassware (pitcher, plates, and goblets) by the bride's mother, pitcher by Frank Langkope, glass biscuit plate by Mrs. Arnold, set of tumblers by Mrs. Annie Anderson, $1 by Mrs. Henry.

Friday morning the bridal parties departed for their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will reside near Boonville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toler will live with the groom's parents, three miles west of Prairie Home.

A GUEST.
