

The Statesman.

FRIDAY, NOV. 6, 1891.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

$2.50 kip boots at Trautman's.
The corn huskers were all out.
Hides wanted at Brittain & Co.'s.
Chickens wanted at Brittain & Co.'s.
$2.00 ladies' kid button shoes at Trautman's.
Black dress goods at Fenner & Newcomer's.
All kinds of yarns at Fenner & Newcomer's.
Col. Milo Smith went to Clinton Tuesday.
Oysters served in any style at Sundell's.
Mrs. M. F. Andrews is home from her Omaha visit.
19-cent all wool hose at Fenner & Newcomer's.
Handled teas, 50 cents per set. Cooper & Speers.
Wilbur, Densel & Glick for picture mouldings.
Mrs. Henry McNeely has been quite ill this week.
Hosiery and underwear at Fenner & Newcomer's.
Beaver, velvet and felt shawls at M. F. Andrews'.

The adjusters are working hard on the Brittain fire.
Our entire stock of lamps at cost. Cooper & Speers.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long are visiting in Perry this week.
Blankets, flannels and yarns at Fenner & Newcomer's.
New dark prints and gingham at Fenner & Newcomer's.
The largest vote ever polled in Iowa. No drones this time.
Mr. McConnell, of Springfield, Ill., was in the city Tuesday.
The more you educate the farmer the more democrats you make.
□ Deputy Collector Cloud Brock came home from Dubuque to vote.
Look at our all wool blankets before you buy Fenner & Newcomer

I have a good house and lot to exchange for colts and horses. Price, $1,200. Geo. E. Adams, 12 East Main street.

Mr. W. E. Wescott, of Dillon, was a pleasant STATESMAN caller yesterday. He is happy over the great democratic victory.

Twenty ladies' newmarkets, carried over from last year, that are worth $15 to $25, will be sold at from $4 to $10. M. F. Andrews.

The republicans had to go down in their pockets pretty deep to make up their guarantee to the Central for the Oskaloosa trip.

You will be surprised what a good meal you can get for 15 cents at Sundell's. Tables reserved for ladies. 105 East Main street.

Miss Alma E. Giddings celebrated her birthday Tuesday evening with a small circle of her friends whom she elegantly entertained.

I have a few dates left for sales in this month. Leave orders with Rhoades & Carmean Co. or George Brown, real estate agent. Ben. O. Rhoades.

Some of the best legal authority claim that there is no vacancy in the justice's offices in this city. If this be true, then the three majority won't count.

Andrew Kirchberger has resigned his position at the glucose works. When the works lose Andrew they have lost one of the best men they ever had.

James Murphy, who was judge of election Tuesday in the Fourth ward, and was made happy by Boies' election, celebrated, also, his birthday, being 80 years of age.

Mr. Benjamin has taken the agency of the celebrated Estey pianos and organs, and with the self-tuning "Guild" pianos, he can surely furnish his patrons the best.

At the pastors' union meeting the Baptist church was chosen as the place for holding the Thanksgiving services and Rev. E. W. Bowers was selected to preach the sermon.

Miss Pearl Coggswell was both entertained and surprised Monday evening by a large number of her friends, who came in upon her to help celebrate her seventeenth birthday.

Marshalltown Statesman
6 Nov 1891
5/3