

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Probate court commences Monday.

—K. Campbell was in Chicago this week purchasing goods.

—Robert Campbell, Sr., of Marshall, was in town Wednesday.

—C. H. Brokmeyer has all kinds of candles for the holiday trade, and John will take pleasure in selling them to you.

—Christmas is nearly here. If you intend to purchase candles, call on C. H. Brokmeyer. He will save you money.

—F. M. Adair, of Prairie Home, was in Boonville, Wednesday, and made THE ADVERTISER a pleasant and appreciated call.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will L. Spahr, December 5th, a son. As the proud father emphatically says—"a Jeffersonian Democrat."

—Married, yesterday, at the probate office by Judge Hutchison, Mr. James Williamson and Miss Sallie McFall, both of Saline township.

—For fine China, albums and pictures, dolls, vases, cut glass and other bric-a-brac go to C. F. Wagner's, next to Central National Bank.

—Judge N. W. Williams, a well-known Pilot Grovian, and an accomplished gentleman, was in the Vineclad a few hours last Friday.

—Tom Alsop, who has been for some time with H. D. Carlos, druggist, of this city, is now a prescription clerk in the drug store of Rollius Stephens, at Warsaw.

—A full line of St. Lambert Cut Glass, Royal Worcester, Minden, Rudolstadt and other popular brands of Art Pottery, at C. F. Wagner's, next to Central National Bank.

—Joseph Charley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuster, died last Friday morning. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

—Dennis Steinbach, tender of the Boonville Wine Co.'s big vineyard, in the western suburbs, died Tuesday and was buried yesterday morning in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased leaves a wife and two children.

—Mrs. Chas. Cartner died, Monday, at her home, about six miles south of Boonville, of heart failure. The remains were buried at Mt. Hermon, Wednesday at noon, W. L. Spahr, undertaker, officiating. Deceased leaves a husband and one daughter.

—Lawson Woods, who, it will be remembered, shot a man named Rider last summer, and who was also arrested on a charge of stealing a pistol but broke away from the officer bringing him to jail here, came in and gave himself up to the authorities this week, and is now awaiting his trial.

Mrs Cartner
died
12 Dec 1892