

DuPont Times
5 Sep 1895

6/2

Judge Henry Cowgill.

Judge Henry Cowgill, for thirty years a resident of Chillicothe, died the other night of a complication of diseases, aged 52.

He was a bachelor, was born at Greencastle, Ind., and was the son of Judge John Cowgill, an eminent jurist. For eighteen years he held office in Livingston county, serving six years as justice of the peace, eight years as probate judge, and four years as county clerk, his term expiring with 1894.