

Weekly Democrat News
Marshall, MO
6 Aug 1898

8/1

Judge W. D. Bush is in the city from Nelson.

Lucien Thomson, of Slater, was here this week.

Mrs. Jane Huff is visiting relatives at Gilliam.

Mrs. N. B. Bowles of Napton was in the city Monday.

Mrs. J. Smith Adams of the county was in Thursday.

If you wish a nice boarding place, near the square, address Box 216, Marshall, Mo.

Lon Piper and wife, of Harde- man, were here Tuesday.

Dr. A. R. Edmonds, of Miami, was in the city Thursday.

Work upon the new M. E. church is progressing rapidly.

FRIDAY — $1.00 Day! —
Special Bargain.

a3b1w HOUX BROS.

Miss Ella Bauer of Salt Springs was among Tuesday's visitors.

Wm. Johnson and wife of Fairville were in the city Saturday.

Lee Hanley, of Wanamaker, was among Wednesday's visitor.

The Misses Montgomery, of Herndon, were in Thursday shop- ping.

G. W. Whitlow, of Ridge Prarie was in the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Zwanzig and daughters Velda, Laura and Margaret were in the city shop- ping Thursday.

Extra Bargains Friday—
Special $1.00 Sale.

a3b1w HOUX BROS.

J. J. Kavanagh and children, Mary and John, with Pat Hay- den and wife left Monday morn- ing for St. Louis.

John Watts, of Arrow Rock, has just returned from a trip to California. He says times are dull upon that coast.

Wm. Dowling was fined $5 and costs in the mayor's court Tues- day for a plain drunk. He was introduced to the rock pile.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Irvine with George Brown wife and daugh- ter Allie spent Sunday with Robt Irvine's family near Fairville.

For Belton, Harrisonville, Clin- ton, Lowry City, Osceola, Mone- gaw Springs and Springfield, the Memphis Route is the best. btf

The friends of Dr. M. M. Young will be sorry to know that he is very much worse at his home in Pueblo, Col., with little hope of his recovery.

W. F. Kerdoff, ex-president and now traveling agent for Cen- tral Female College at Lexing- ton, Mo., was an agreeable caller at this office Tuesday.

John W. Bartlett and son, who have been visiting relatives here, left Friday afternoon on the 4 o'clock C. & A. for their home at Bartlett Station, Texas.

Dr. J. E. Harris has returned from a few days stay at Mexico, McCredie and Montgomery City. The Dr's. trip was one of business and pleasure combined.