Died at Tipton.

Last Friday, February 3, 1899, Mrs. Churchill Ross, of Tipton, mother of M. M. Ross of this place, died very suddenly at her home there of heart failure and general debility occasioned by her extreme old age, she being near 85 years old. She has lived in this country for many years, and leaves two sons and a daughter, besides grand and great-grand children to mourn her loss. Her husband preceded her to the better land some fourteen years. Her children are M. M. Ross of this place, P. F. Ross of Tipton and Mrs. Schultz of Syracuse. Her funeral was preached by Rev. Tate of the Baptist church, of which denomination she has been a member for 60 years.

Ross

She was buried in the Tipton cemetery.

Mrs. Fannie Homan, wife of Frank Homan, and daughter of M. M. Ross, whose home is near Smithton, died at residence of her uncle, P. F. Ross, at Tipton, Monday, February 7, 1899, at 11 o'clock P. M. Mrs. Homan was 33 years of age, and leaves a husband and three children to mourn for a loving wife and a fond mother.

Homan

She went to Tipton several days ago to visit friends, her health being poor. The immediate cause of death was hemorrhage of the lungs.

She was a member of the Stony Point Cumberland Presbyterian church, and her remains were brought here and the funeral took place Wednesday from the Methodist church, the sermon being preached by her pastor, Rev. M. R. Dougherty, assisted by Rev. Mrs. Riggs of the Methodist church.

McNeil

Mrs. Homan was a true Christian, and many friends join with her family in mourning the loss of a pure and good woman.
