R. E. Potter,

Some time ago it was reported that a certain bachelor had been asking the Lord to help him in his endeavor to get a wife; and now we learn that a widower, just out of town is seeking aid from the same source. Look out, girls!

—J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., conductor on a street car line, writes that his little daughter was very low with croup, and her life saved after all physicians had failed, only by using One Minute Cough Cure. R. E. Potter, druggist.

—Court Stenographer George Zollinger was in attendance upon court this week in his official capacity. George has the deserved reputation of being one of the best court stenographers in the state.

Deage Valley Record.

—Miss Bettie Gochenour will begin her sixth term of school at Pleasant Hill next Monday. This speaks well for Miss Bettie as a teacher, and shows the good judgment of the board in refusing to make a change every year.

—For frost bites, burns, indolent sores, eczema, skin diseases, and especially piles, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stands first and best. Look out for dishonest people who try to imitate and counterfeit it. It's their endorsement of a good article. Worthless goods are not imitated. Get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. R. E. Potter.

—Married, at the C. P. Parsonage in this city Wednesday, March 29, 1899, by Rev. M. R. Dougher, G. Mr. Howard Daugherty and Miss Marie Finley, both of Morgan county. The groom is a son of Judge Daugherty of Morgan county, and is an excellent and worthy young man, while the bride is one of Little Morgan's most accomplished and esteemed young ladies.

—Last Tuesday morning when the fast mail train throw off the mail here the sacks got under the cars and were dragged nearly to the old mill. The sacks were run over and cut and the contents scattered along the track in the snow. It was picked up and brought to
