June 17, 1899 His Wife Left Him. marsh mo

J. F. C. Rennison, a well-to-do farmer of the Elk Lick neighborhood, who was married at Counce's hotel, in this city, ten weeks ago last Saturday night by Justice Burr to Miss Nettie Stokes, was in town last night in search of his wife, who deserted him yesterday.

The couple lived together in apparent happiness until yesterday, when Mrs. Rennison stated to her husband that she was coming to Sedalia, and made her way here on foot.

Mr. Rennison stated to a Democrat reporter that he had provided his wife with all the fine clothes she wanted, gave her money, and that she had nothing to do, and why she left him he does not know.—Sedalia Democrat.
