PIONEER DEAD.

An Old Resident of Saline County a Victim of Chronic Trouble.

J. F. C. Rennison, aged 74 years, died Sunday morning, at his home, twenty miles northeast of Sedalia, of some chronic trouble, and was buried at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the churchyard at Miller's chapel, in that neighborhood. He was a pioneer settler of that section.

Mr. Rennison some months ago achieved considerable notoriety by marrying a young woman in this city. His wife afterwards left him and returned to Sedalia.
