

LOCAL NEWS.

→ Mrs. Robt. Gaudiffis quite ill.

Theo. Mayer went to St. Louis Monday night, to buy goods.

Mr. Winfred Gough, of Shelby, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Farrell.

Rev. James Martin preached for the W. C. T. U. at the poor farm Sunday.

Miss Hawkins is entertaining Mrs. Threadgill of Oklahoma on Capitol Hill.

Misses Octavia and Celeste Lescuer are visiting Mrs. W. C. Gower.

W. R. Howard of Jamestown, Ark. was here Saturday and is visiting relatives in Saline.

MoAllister Springs were in flood Sunday with Jud Parrish, Gus Mayer, Will Rea and Ben Striker.

Miss Minnie Trautwein, who has been visiting friends here has returned to her home in Kansas City.

Mrs. Dan Robertson, of Kansas City, is visiting Mrs. Emily Mitchell and other relatives.

Miss Hannah Manheim returned Monday, from a visit to Mrs. D. B. Robertson at Mt. Leonard.

Miss Amie Zott who has been visiting Mr. Will Pate left Monday for her home in St. Louis.

After September 1st, the Marshall Gas Light Co. will reduce the price of gas to 1.50 per 100 cubic feet to all consumers.

Prof. John W. Kirkpatrick who is teaching in Cooper, is home from a visit in Randolph county.

Mrs. W. H. Bruce started to Richmond, Kentucky, Tuesday to see her mother who is sick.

→ Miss Helen Huff and her guest Miss Bettle Noolen went to Arrow Rock Saturday to visit Alice McMahan.

Born in St. Louis, Saturday, August 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Alexander, a daughter.

Rolf and Grauch shipped five loads of cattle from Mt. Leonard Tuesday and one of hogs from Marshall to Chicago.

Mr. Joe Robertson of Mt. Leonard shipped five carloads of cattle Monday to Chicago, receiving $5.50 for them.

Miss Ida Sparks, daughter of Mr. Henry Sparks, who has been visiting Miss Lottie Long has returned to St. Louis accompanied by her cousin, David Sparks.

Mrs. Jas. Craddock will start in a few days to Trinidad Col. to see her daughter Miss Mary who is not so well as she was.

The school buildings are being fixed up and will be in good trim as drill rooms for training of the young idea to shoot by Sep. 12th, when school begins.

Mrs. H. H. Harrie and her fair guest Miss Mason, of this city, were in from the former's country home Monday.

Miss Sallie Spencer, with her nieces, Agnes, Louise and Mary Willits returned from a Salisbury trip Saturday.

The flower parade is to be a leading feature of the Sedalia Street Fair. A good one could be gotten up here.

They are voting for a Carnival Queen for the Street Fair at Sedalia. Miss Cullinan is in the lead. Who will be Marshall's queen?

Mr. John W. Bryant has an immense and highly ornamental desk of golden oak in his new quarters in the Hurt block. The finish is like a piano and it is a handsome piece of furniture.

Mrs. Griffith traded her residence in Highland Place for Mr. E. D. Montague's residence adjoining the city on the south west, and five acres of the 40 acres of his tract.

The Misses Fisher are entertaining Miss Margaret Kite, of Miami.

Mr. James Marr drove to Excelsior Springs Monday in a buggy. He wants to buggy ride the gay widows up there.

Mrs. Zilphah Ann Gordon, the mother of Col. J. A. Gordon, left for her home in Mound City Monday after a visit to him and his family.

Miss Ada Sparks has been offered a position in the State Normal School of Michigan. She is in doubt whether to accept or remain in Chicago.

Mr. H. H. Parsons brought Miss Ethylene Jackson home from MoAllister Monday. She had been there a week.

The Sedalia Capital says the bands want too much for playing at the Street Fair. They offered $3 per day for their home band but the band felt a scruple at the price.

Mrs. T. J. Hunter and her granddaughter Miss Edna Garrett are visiting Messrs Garrett and Jas Lankford in Pueblo. Miss Edna has been up in the mountains at T. H. Graybael's.

Mr. A. W. Bailey indulged in a new buggy Thursday which he purchased from Charlie Potter and which is a very smooth-running conveyance, as we tried it.

Mrs. H. S. Hopkins, M. P. Suggott, and S. P. Martin of Blackburn, after a visit to Mrs. L. D. Murrell at Napton, visited Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Martin, here, this week.

→ Mr. Frank Tucker, son of Judge L. H. Tucker, left for Kansas City, Kansas, Monday after several days visit here. He has a good job there in the brewing business. He was recently from Texas where he was occupied in the railroad line of affairs.