

Boonville Weekly Advertiser
27 Mar 1903
8/3

A BLACKWATER WEDDING.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 17th, a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of P. H. Smith, near Blackwater, Rev. Dotson, of Nelson, officiating. The groom was Elijah Case, Jr., a prominent and prosperous young farmer. The bride was Miss Pearl, daughter of Mr. Smith. She is an accomplished and charming young woman. Only relatives and a few friends were present. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. Case is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Colin, of Boonville.