

Central Missouri Republican

9 Nov 1905

2/5

Gooch Mill Column

C. G. Cunningham, of Jefferson City, was here the third of this month.

Wm. Stock, of Renfrow, was here shaking hands with friends Saturday.

W. A. Case and wife, of Clarke Fork, spent Sunday with O. F. Case and wife.

Henry Jenery, of Prairie Home, purchased a load of flour of Turner & Lacy, of this place.

E. L. McFall went to Boonville Friday to purchase holiday goods for the Rogers store.

W. H. Howard, of Sedalia, representing the Bieler Grocer Co., was in this place Tuesday.

Carl Lenger and wife, of Renfrow, passed through this place last Thursday enroute to Boonville.

O. F. Case, of this place, returned home Wednesday from a visit to his mother at Waverley, Iowa.

Henry Renison a young and honored member of the W. O. W. lodge died at his fathers home at this place. The funeral was held at Providence Baptist church. The services were conducted by the W. O. W. lodge. A. D. Manson, was the undertaker.