

5/4

—W. B. Rissler, cashier of the Bank of Pleasant Green attended the bankers' meeting here Tuesday and favored the Advertiser with a pleasant call.

See the new line of fall and winter shoes at Johnson & Sons'.

—Take that old hat out of the window and go to Dan's Drug Store and Free Museum and get good, nice, clean glass. You will be surprised how cheap they are.

—Thanksgiving dinner does not taste so good when we think of those who have no dinner at all. Put some money in the poor box and help the unfortunate ones.

Johnson & Sons are up-to-date on all kinds of footwear. See their new goods.

The yellow badge is the color of sunshine, a little money in the poor box will make your own heart glow and light up some dark corner elsewhere.

—Hans and Nix is one of the cleanest shows on the road. Any lady can see and enjoy every scene on the program. At Stephens Opera House next Monday night.

—J. E. Rennison, the well known real estate man, has been confined to his room some days from sickness. He is improving and will soon be out again, we are glad to state.

—A young man was arrested in St. Louis Tuesday accused of burglary. He gave the name of Wm. Beal, of Chicago, but had on a coat marked R. F. V. Boonville, Mo.

—Frank Derringer, who was travelling with Cole's circus as a musician, arrived home Wednesday night to attend his father's funeral. The company is showing in Georgia.

—The Swift Packing Company, has purchased the interests in Missouri of the National Poultry & Egg Company, consisting of plants at Boonville, Sedalia, Jefferson City, Warrensburg and Moberly.

—Prof. George R. Johnson, principal of the Boonville High School, was in Marshall Wednesday visiting our High School, taking points with reference to methods, etc.

Miss McDaniels, the Latin teacher of the Boonville school, was here about two weeks ago to visit the High School.—Democrat-News.

—Jno. King, a Howard county negro, was arrested here Wednesday and taken across the river by a Howard county officer. He is charged with drawing a pistol and threatening to shoot a white woman at the Junction, named Mary White. The negro was taken to Fayette and tried on Tuesday and was fined $20.

—R. M. Snyder, the Kansas City millionaire banker, who was under indictment for bribery in the St. Louis boodle cases, was killed in an automobile accident in Kansas City about 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening. While riding from his office to his home on Independence avenue, his chauffeur suddenly whirled his auto to one side to escape a collision with a boy riding a bicycle. The auto struck the curb and threw Snyder out, his head striking an iron telephone pole. He was removed to a hospital and died an hour later from a fractured skull. The boy was also killed.

Billingsville,

Sam Smith and wife visited Mrs. Mary Watson Sunday.

L. M. Harriman is visiting his brother Eugene Harriman in St. Louis this week.

Mrs. Pete Koenig and Mrs. Roy Grossman, of Nelson, are visiting John Rentschler.

Mrs. Glazier, Mr. McNulty and Geo. Muntzel wife and children spent Monday at the home of A. H. McArthur.

Mrs. Behrens returned home from McGirk this week where she had been the guest of her daughter Mrs. Otto Fritsch.

A. H. Eichelberger and wife of Bell Air, Mr. Conklin, of Virginia and Mrs. A. C. Goode and daughter Miss Beulah, of Pilot Grove spent Sunday at the home of Miss Maggie Chamberlin.

The only way to have a Democratic victory is to vote for it.