

Peter Courtney during the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. S. Cohn, of Tipton, were in the city yesterday on their way to Kansas City to spend Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wise left yesterday afternoon to spend Christmas with relatives and friends at Warrensburg.

Tod Cloney, of Chicago, arrived yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cloney during the Christmas holidays.

Harry and Miss Flora Mullen, of Kansas City, are visiting the family of Michael Mullen, of East Fourteenth street.

Charles Y. Taylor, editor of the Knob Noster Gem, was here yesterday en route to Hannibal to visit relatives.

J. A. Daniel, attorney of Kansas City, is spending the holidays with his father, A. Daniel, 207 East Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fellows, of Windsor, are spending a few days with W. O. B. Dixon and family in this city.

Miss Cleora Barrett, of Kansas City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mausehke, of West Seventh street, for the holidays.

Dr. George E. McNeil, of the M. K. & T. hospital staff of physicians and surgeons, visited relatives at Ottumwa yesterday.

Joe O'Connell and sister, Miss Beatrice, of St. Louis, will arrive today to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Connell.

J. R. Field, of Longwood township, and T. W. Warren, of Blackwater

Miss Ethel Murray, stenographer for John T. Stinson, secretary of the Missouri State fair, departed yesterday for Holden to spend the holidays with her mother.

C. R. Miller, jr., a graduate of the Sedalia High school, now in his third year at the Rolla School of Mines, is here for a visit with his father, sister and brother.

Tom Donohue, who is now located at Lafayette, Ind., and is making his mark in the street railroad world, is home for a holiday visit with his mother and sisters.

Mrs. H. V. Leist departed yesterday for Chicago, to attend a family reunion and enjoy a Christmas dinner with her father, Calvin Osborne, two brothers and a sister.

S. H. Barnett and Sam Duvencik left early this morning for California, Mo., where Mr. Barnett will be the Christmas guest of the Duvencik family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Farley and daughter, Miss Marde Farley, departed yesterday for Warrensburg, where they are visiting relatives and friends today.

Walter Gibbons, of Nevada, arrived yesterday morning to join his wife, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McCubbin, of South Grand avenue.

Rex Wright, formerly with the Third National bank in this city, but now holding a good position in Kansas City, was here yesterday and left for his home at Smithton to spend the holidays.

Harry Collins, of the firm of Collins Bros., painters and decorators, came up from Warsaw yesterday to visit home folks over Christmas. Collins Bros. have three large contracts at Warsaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brill and children departed yesterday for Kansas City to visit relatives and friends. Mr. Brill will return home Sunday, but his family will make a more extended visit.

Mrs. John Shafer and daughter, Miss Rosella, departed yesterday for Kansas City to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer and to attend the wedding of William Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer.

Sedalia Democrat
25 Dec
1908
5/3

A. AVANSINO,
Headquarters for Fruits, Nuts,
Celery, Oysters and Christmas
Candies.
SPECIAL CHRISTMAS ICE CREAM.
224 OHIO 'PHONE 130

HOW ABOUT CHRISTMAS

Have you been thinking? It's

