

Webb City Register

26 Jan 1909

1/6

PIONEER ANSWERS CALL

Prominent Farmer Living South Of Carthage Succumbs After Long Illness.

T. C. Gilbraith aged 63 years, living two miles south of Carthage died Sunday afternoon after an illness of several months. He was a pioneer resident of Jasper county and a prominent farmer.

He leaves five children, three of them sons and two daughters. A brother J. B. Gilbraith lives in Carterville. The funeral arrangements will not be completed until relatives in Iowa are heard from.

Gilbraith