DEATH OF A LITTLE GIRL.

Died January 27, 1909, Edith Pearle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Polly aged one year and 10 months. Little Edith was a precious flower, given only to bud on earth and bloom in Heaven. She had been sick several weeks with that dreadful disease pneumonia, from which she suffered intensely until Jesus in his infinite love relieved her from her suffering. How sweet it is to console our grief by thinking of Jesus words, "Suffer little children to come unto me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Dear parents weep not for your loved one for God had need of her in his Kingdom. He doeth all things well. What in your loss fond parents is your darlings gain, for now she is a happy little angel in Heaven. Lord help them to say thy will be done.

Thou art sleeping

Silent sleeping

From care and pains and woe

Thy soul hath flown to meet its God

Where ours shall shortly go.
