

Boonville Weekly Advertiser
23 July 1909 8/2

F. M. Hurt, an old citizen of Cooper county, six miles south east of Boonville, died Wednesday morning, aged about 81 years.

John J. Lamm, a brother of Supreme Judge Henry Lamm, a well known Pettis county farmer, died last Saturday, aged 76 years.

Luther Tolson and wife, of Jefferson City, passed through Boonville Tuesday morning, from Fayette to their home. They had been to Moberly to attend the funeral of a relative.

Wm. T. Cross of Columbia, Mo., recently appointed Secretary of the State Board of Charities, was in Boonville Tuesday. Mr. Cross is one of Gov. Hadley's Democratic appointees.

County Collector, Wm. L. Koenig and bride, returned Wednesday from their bridal trip, and are receiving the congratulations of their friends.

The C. & A. and Wabash which have been using the M. K. & T. tracks from Moberly to Sedalia and Boonville, have withdrawn their trains and are now using their own tracks.

Robert M. Snoddy a pioneer citizen of Howard county, died Thursday, July, 8th, at his home near Armstrong, of cancer. Mr. Snoddy was born in Howard county on January 31, 1831.

Frank (Fatty) Derringer chaperoned a party of Boonvillians to see Ringling Bros. shows at Marshall Saturday. Fatty has been there and knows how to talk circus to a finish, and he showed the boys a good time.

Mr. Hurt
died 21 Jul
1909