

Central Missouri Republican
16 Mar 1911 6/3
Blackwater column

ited friends in Marshall this week.
Tom Marshall was in Blackwater
Monday.

D. A. Allison and little daughter, Katherine returned to Kansas City Monday after having spent several days visiting the little lady's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. McMahan.

Dr. Walter Scott and family moved this week into D. A. Allison's cottage near the Christian church.

Cliff Caton bought a horse from Ben Nelder John last week for the sum of $265.

Mrs. Nettle Caton and daughter, Miss Octa were guests of Miss Jane Hill Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Seats, aged eighty-five years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sylvester Shemwell, on Trigg Avenue at four o'clock Sunday morning. Her remains were laid to rest Monday in the Old Lamine cemetery.

OLD LAMINE.

During the electric storm Saturday night Cliff Caton's barn was struck by lightning.

Clarence Nichols and family of Slater were the guests of Mrs. R. B. Hill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Obed Noble of Marshall are visiting Mrs. J. A. Davis.

Mrs. Mamie Crammer and little daughter, Elsie Gale spent several days last week with Mrs. W. H. Ricks.

Mrs. Moss Wing was shopping in Boonville last Thursday.

Miss Bernice Mellor was in Boonville Saturday.