Dr. A. J. Smith, who has been on the border for several months with the Missouri troops, came home Monday. The Doctor looks somewhat bronzed from his stay among the greasers.

Among the 150 convicts paroled by Gov. Major as he retired from office, was Ray Renfrow from Cooper county, convicted and sentenced November 26, 1915, for forgery. He was paroled to Dr. O. W. Cochran of Overton.

MRS. SAMUEL WINDERS DEAD.

Mrs. Darinda Winders, widow of the late Samuel Winders, died Monday evening last at the home of her son, Paul Winders, about nine miles south of Boonville, at the age of 78 years. She was born in Cooper county and was a sister of Mr. W. C. Scott of this city. Funeral services were held at Mt. Herman church Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. A. Richards.

Dr. Arthur J. Smith got home Monday from Ft. Riley, Kansas, where he was stationed a short time after leaving Laredo, Texas. He has resumed the practice of his profession with offices in Boonville. Dr. Smith spent several months at Laredo with his company in the service of Uncle Sam and is glad to get back home.
