

A CHARMING HOME WEDDING

With a quiet dignity and yet all the charm and delightful intimacy of a small home wedding, the marriage of Miss Manie Simmons and Lt. William E. Stone was beautifully solemnized on Friday morning last November 15 at 10:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eph. Simmons on Chestnut street. Only members of the immediate family and two intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. H. Stone of Columbia, MO, father of the groom, using the ring service. The home was tastefully decorated in beautiful chrysanthemums and in the dining room where a three course wedding breakfast was served a color scheme of pink and white was carried out.

The bride, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Eph Simmons, was beautifully gowned in midnight blue Charmeuse, combined with embroidered Georgette with corsage of brides rosebuds and sweet peas. She is a very attractive young lady, of the blonde type, with attributes of unusual distinction. Her charming manner has won for her many friends who are held by her sincerity.

Lt. Stone is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Stone, of Columbia, MO, who will be remembered here as having held the pastorate of the Baptist church a number of years ago. Lieut. Stone is a doctor of medicine in the reserve corps of the U. S. Navy and is located at Portsmouth, Virginia, where they expect to make their home.

Lieut. and Mrs. Stone left on the 12:30 Pacific train for St. Louis, from where they will make a short trip through the east, stopping for several days in Washington, D. C.
