DIED.

James M. Agee.

James M. Agee, aged 80 years, died at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at his home in Kansas City, according to a message to his nephew, W. H. Agee, a Lamonte merchant, received Wednesday morning.

Mr. Agee was a former Pettis countain and many years ago was engaged in the mercantile business at Dresden, later going to Wheatland, Mo., where he resided for a term of years. During the past several years he had made his home in Kansas City.

Born in Kentucky, he came to Missouri when a young man and was one of the early settlers at Dresden. He served during the civil war as a member of the state militia.

Surviving him is two sons, James A., and Lee Agee, in the real estate business at Kansas City, a son P. Y. Agee, of Oklahoma, who up to twenty years, or more ago, was employed at the St. Louis clothing store in this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Ida Robinson, also making her home in Oklahoma.

The remains will be brought to Dresden Friday morning and the funeral will be held there at 11 o'clock on that day.

Interment will be in the Dresden cemetery. ✓
