SEDALA DEMOCRAT 26 Dec 1919 1/1

GILMORE LUCKETT IS IS CITED FOR VALOR

Coming as a Christmas present Thursday, was a letter from the war department to Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Luckett, 1615 South Carr avenue, a citation for bravery in action of their youngest son Thomas Glimore Luckett, corporal in Battery "F", 19th Field Artillery which served oversess.

Gilmore who had returned home from Wichita Falls; Texas, where he is a mechanic in a garage, to spend two weeks visit during the holidays, was here to receive the good news.

Official Order No. 25 of the Fifth division dated July 8, 1919, contained the names of officers and enlisted men, who won citations for valor. Corporals Thomas G. Luckett, Rudolph Schultz, Steven Davis and Private George Christianson of Battery. Her were cited as follows in the general orders:

Near Thisucourt, France, on the night of September 29, 1918, they displayed great courage and devotion to duty by remaining at an exposed gun position and continuing to fire while an enemy airplane bombed and used its machine gun on the position."

The order was by cammand of Major General Ely and signed by C. A. Troot, chief of staff.

reason to feel proud of this honor for their son which they and he will treasure for many years to come. Sedalians are also proud of the record of young Luckett.