

MRS. WILLIAM WALJE DEAD

Lady of Speed Has Host of Friends in Cooper County.

Mrs. William Walje of Speed died Tuesday afternoon at St. Joseph's Hospital. Mrs. Walje had been ill for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Stegner on Main street.

Mrs. Walje, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sewell, of Sweet Springs, was born at Houstonia, Mo., June 24, 1891. She was married to William Walje of Speed six years ago. Beside her husband and parents, she is survived by four sisters and two brothers. Before her marriage she was Miss Angie Berry Sewell of Houstonia.

Funeral services will be at the Speed church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be at Sedalia, the funeral party making the trip overland.

Mrs. Walje, who was a Christian young woman of many admirable traits of character, leaves a host of friends and relatives in Boonville and the community in which she lived who will sadly miss the one who has gone from them.
