

Sedalia

Democrat

1
~~##~~ Mar 1922

We are
na. Wal-
oswitha
ollowing
book, a cloth to
a ring,
doll of ve been ived all en that hearted
ask you
rite im-
l three l health
a to the
, where
lk, sar-
er good ve were ause we
ss.
nything
se some ome of ant one
Ve shall
is. We eend to our best to reaching an advanced age, when he was compelled to retire owing to failing health.

M. V. Carroll will leave Thursday morning for Butler to attend the funeral, which will be held at that place Friday.

Aside from the son here the following other children survive him: Mrs. Elizabeth Onione and Mrs. Rose Clarke of Chicago; George Carroll, Woodward, Okla., Mrs. Celia Hubbard, Kincaid, Kansas, Clark Carroll, Mrs. Maggie Charters and Frank Carroll, all of Butler and vicinity.

Mrs. Mary Rennison

Mrs. Mary Rennison, aged 70 years for 45 years a resident of Otterville died Monday night at the home of her grandson, Lawrence Bottom of Otterville.

Surviving the deceased are one son, Lon Bottom of Fallon, Nev., ten grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the Otterville Baptist church this afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. J. Clawson, pastor of that church.
