

OTTERVILLE

(Mrs. Pauline C. Ross)

T. B. Wherley, Jr. went to Kansas City Friday for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berkey of Eron, visited friends here this week.

Mrs. Margaret Brownfield, of Seattle, Wash., arrived last week for an extended visit here.

Mrs. J. E. Spillers has returned home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Tleman, of California.

Mrs. E. B. Todd went to Pilot Grove for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thomas.

The ladies of the Baptist church held a window sale of "eats" Saturday and the sum of $17 was realized.

Mrs. M. B. Small and Mrs. Annie Ross are both recovering from attacks of influenza at their homes here.

Miss Agnes Spillers has resumed her duties as teacher in the California schools after a visit with her parents.

The grade school program which was rendered before a capacity house at the Baptist church Friday night was a fine one.

Miss Mattie Belle Hupp, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Watts to their home at Ft. Scott, Kan., and will be their guest for sometime.

D. B. Mayfield reports the following stock shipments for the past three days: 3 car loads of hogs from here and one car, each of hogs and cattle from Sedalla.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Laws accompanied by Dr. Chas. D. Osborne went to Kansas City Sunday where Mrs. Laws entered a hospital for treatment. H. D. Case and Guy Laws, of Bunceton, are in charge of the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank during the absence of Mr. Laws.

The "Womanless Wedding" at the Presbyterian church, Thursday night was a success in every particular. Forty-two men took part. Robt. Homan was the blushing bride, Emmet Monroe the groom, T. R. Cranmer the officiating minister. Among the guests were many notables, movie actresses, etc., all of whom were appropriately costumed. The sum of $92.60 was the door receipts.

The funeral of Mrs. Sallie McNeil, who died Wednesday night, was held at the family residence Friday afternoon, Rev. P. P. Hummell, of Sedalla, officiating. Song services were provided by a quartette of Sedalla singers: Dr. R. J. Haugam, A. Thomas, Mrs. C. C. Kelly and Mrs. P. P. Hummell. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery beside the husband, P. P. McNeil, who died nine years ago.