

OTTERVILLE

Chas. Lauer, Boonville, was calling on Ottervillians Saturday.

Miss Eva Henry, of Tipton, is the guest of Mrs. F. L. Cole this week.

Homan Hupp, of Raton, N. M., arrived in Otterville Monday for a visit with relatives.

Misses Edith Berry and Frances Eubank went to Warrensburg Thursday for a several days' visit.

Miss Pauline Childers, of St. Louis, and Miss Maude Small, of Sedalia, are guests of Mrs. H. H. Everett.

Mrs. Emil Moore, of Warsaw, underwent an operation this week for the removal of her tonsils at the Osborne hospital.

Misses Ruth and Glennola Gorman have returned home after a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hogan, Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons are the proud parents of a daughter, their first born, who arrived on the morning of May 26, whom they have named Mary Elizabeth.

L. A. Eubank arrived Sunday from Cowgill, where he has been Supt. of Schools for the past two years, and will spend the summer at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank.

For the past several months the Mo. Pacific night office at the station here, has been closed. It has just been re-opened and Roy Reich who formerly was here, is now in charge of the office.

Miss Ella Mae Henderson was elected teacher in the ward school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Durward Goode, completing the corps of teachers for the Otterville consolidated district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gunn and their guest, Mrs. H. P. Lay, of Warsaw, went to Cape Girardeau, Thursday, where they will be guests at a house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Hunter until the first of the week.

Mrs. Annie Ross, one of Otterville's respected residents, fell backwards from a porch in the rear of her home Friday morning, severely injuring one of her limbs, tearing the ligaments under the knee and sustaining bruises and other slight injuries.

Thieves entered the garage of E. B. Reed Saturday, by breaking in a window and carried off tires, inner tubes and tools valued at $50. A few nights previous to that two tires and a wheel were stolen from a truck in the garage at the residence of J. A. Shults.

A sale of the personal effects of the late Miss Amanda Bell was held at the late residence, one mile southeast of town, Saturday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance. Bidding was spirited on some of the furniture, all of which was brought from Ohio in 1865 and a few pieces brought from Ireland in 1809.

Miss Gladys Garland has been elected as teacher of English and History in the Otterville high school this coming term. Miss Garland is an Otterville girl educated in the Otterville schools, the Teachers College at Warrensburg, taught several very successful terms; at present is attending the Missouri University, where she will receive her degree of B. S. at the close of the present term.

Mrs. W. S. Parsons and Jesse Parsons attended the wedding of Emmett Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parsons, of Otterville, and Miss Flossie Platner which was solemnized at the bride's home in Malta Bend, Saturday, May 24. Following a trip to Kansas City, the happy couple will go to housekeeping in Marshall, where the groom is Asst. Cashier in the Bank of Marshall.