MARRIED IN BOONVILLE

Miss Hallene Hurt Became Bride of Mr. Wesley Koonse.

Miss Hallene Hurt, teacher of the Locust Grove School, near Lamine, became the bride of V. Wesley Koonse, who lives seven miles west of Boonville, Wednesday, the wedding being performed in Boonville by Rev. F. E. Cooper, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boonville.

Following the wedding the couple left for Prior, Douglas county for a visit with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Edgar Hurt. They will make their home on a farm west of Boonville.

The bride is an attractive and accomplished young lady who has many friends in Cooper county, where she was born and reared. The groom is a successful young farmer of sterling worth and character.
