

Otterville:

which she moved to Kansas City. She is survived by six children: Hester and Lizzie Corson, of Kansas City; Bertie and Nettie Decker, of Byberry, and Jesse and Levi Corson, of Sedalla. Interment was at the Lebanon Cemetery.

Edward Layne, progressive lumberman, of Otterville, returned home Sunday from Oklahoma City, where he attended the annual meeting of the Southwestern Lumberman's Association. He reports a splendid time and also many new ideas pertaining to lumber and building material. The next meeting will be held in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Bane entertained with a birthday dinner complimentary to Mr. Bane's father, Mr. Jas. Bane, on Sunday, January 25. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bane, Mr. and Mrs. Thorton Wear and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wear and family.

Waldo Rischer returned to Anthon, Iowa, Friday after spending two months with his sister, Miss Olive Rischer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buford entertained Sunday with a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Buford's sister, Mrs. Pearl Halley. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Buford and family, Mrs. Pearl Halley and family, Mr. Ernest Halley and Mae Evelyn Halley, of Sedalla.

Mrs. Roy Reich returned home Saturday after having undergone a surgical operation at the Missouri Pacific Hospital, St. Louis. She stood the trip well, and is improving rapidly.

Miss Edith Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Berry, of Byberry, was operated on Thursday for appendicitis at the General Hospital, Sedalla, by Drs. Shy and R. L. Fogle.

Mrs. M. Gorman suffered severe bruises and fractured several ribs by falling on the sleet and ice and is confined to her bed.

Miss Ruth Zahn, of California, spent the week-end here with her former roommate, Miss Agnes Spillera.

Mrs. Nannie Bell returned home Sunday after spending several months with her niece, Anna Knaut, of Jefferson City.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Willy Reed died Monday and was buried in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery Tuesday.

Luckett Smith, of Panico, Mexico, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Sallie Smith, was operated on Wednesday for appendicitis and is getting along nicely.

The seventh grade entertained the 1925 grammar school graduating class Wednesday night at Gunn's Hall. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Miss Mildred Bente spent the