

9/3

9/4

9/5

LUPUS

PENINSULA

Pleasant Green were visitors in Clifton City Monday

(A. N. Clay)

(Mrs. L. A. Retherford)

Herbert Knorp, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knorp, of near Renfro, is now a regular Missouri Pacific brakeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreamer, of Overton, came Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Kreamer's mother, Mrs. Julia Vaughan.

Orville Hutchinson, of Sandy Hook is working in Boonville as third trick operator at the Missouri-Pacific Station.

Frank Renfro and George Knorp, of near Woodridge, loaded a car of walnut logs here last Wednesday.

Several from here attended the "Negro Minstrel" given by the McGirk's Band at Jamestown, Saturday evening.

H. B. Vardoman, carrier on R. F. D. 2 out of Jamestown, called on friends here Sunday.

There was a hard rainstorm here Sunday about noon causing several slides along the bluffs on the railroad.

Alvin Brizendine fell while at school Wednesday and sustained a fractured arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weissor, of Colorado Springs, arrived last week for a visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grossenbacher, of Kirksville, came this week. Mrs. Grossenbacher was formerly Miss Beulah Reimler of this place. They expect to locate here.

Charles Brizendine and brother-in-law, Harry Childress, had over 100 loads of wood sawed last week.

Rev. G. M. Baker, of California, who was recently called as pastor of the local Baptist Church, came Saturday to fill his first regular appointment. He was accompanied by Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Vop B. Wilson was informed by telegram Monday of the death of her uncle, Henry Steffens, formerly of Russellville, who died in Colorado.

Margaret Don Carlos, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Imhoff, of near Cedron, since the death of her mother last fall, came Sunday to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson. Her brother, Boone, will also stay at the Thompson home, while the elder brother, Eugene, expects to go to Henry county soon.

Otto Stock accompanied a shipment of stock to St. Louis Monday.

Miss Laura Hooverdick, popular teacher of the Oakland School, accompanied by her brother, Hugo, who teaches the Fairview School, spent the week-end with home folks near McGirk.

The condition of Mrs. T. B. Haddon and Mrs. Louis Miller is unimproved.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cheatham and daughter, Ha Fern, of Bunceon, came Tuesday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cheatham.

Woodson Jones and family have returned to their farm here. They have been living in Pilot Grove the past year. During this time, Schler Brothers operated the farm. Mr. Jones will farm the place himself this year.

W. F. Helm, teacher of Willow Grove, north of Blackwater, is ill at his home here. There was no school Monday.

The Peninsula Women's Missionary Union met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Biggs.

Rev. J. B. Bomar, of Tipton, filled his regular appointments here Saturday and Sunday.

A new Sullivan air compressor was brought from Blackwater station to the road works here last Friday. It weighs 6200 pounds. It is the property of C. O. Kilmor, who will dynamite the hill to remove a layer of broken rock. Just now, there are places in the road where highway No. 2 follows the old road, and it has been necessary to travel that. It is almost impassable. Doubtless the hard surface road will be appreciated when completed.

A. H. Alley and family and Miss Minerva Mercereau spent Sunday in the T. F. Taylor home.

Martha Branstetter is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Platt and daughter spent Sunday with Mrs. Platt's father, Wiljah Case.

Miss Edna Smith, who has employment in Marshall, spent Saturday night with her parents. She was accompanied by several friends from Marshall.

J. V. Mercereau, who has been suffering with a severe carbuncle since January 1, is improved quite a bit.

Mr. and Mrs. Standard Creamer spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wainscott. Wm. Bagby and C. C. Alley and family were Sunday dinner guests in the Wainscott home.

Joe Cash spent Sunday with John Rouark.

Virgil Taylor and family visited Sunday with Mrs. Taylor's grandmother, Mrs. Marshall, at Nelson.

CLIFTON CITY

(By Mrs. L. A. Retherford)

Mrs. Will Closser, of near Beaman, who fell and broke her hip about two weeks ago, died February 7 and was buried in Olive Branch Cemetery Sunday.

Van Ellis has bought the T. E. Broe property in Clifton City, now occupied by Mr. Thomas.

Mr. John Ellis, of Lamine, and Miss Fern Gross, of Clifton City, were married February 7.

Mr. and Mrs. George Deuschle, of Clear Creek, visited Mrs. Deuschle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McMullin, of Lamine, Sunday.

Jess Tavenner and son, Morris, of Mrs. L. A. Retherford, of Clifton City, is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Joe Twenter, of near Clifton City, had a narrow escape last Wednesday when he attempted to cross a plough on the Joe Retherford farm.

Mrs. H. V. and Mrs. T. M. Retherford, of Lamine, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Retherford.

