

DEATH OF C. A. DONAHUE

Boonville Resident Died Sunday Following Several Months Illness.

Cornellus A. Donahue, who moved to Boonville last March and who had ~~been~~ suffering with heart trouble for some time, died Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the family residence on Spring Street.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon by Rev. O. M. Rickman, followed by interment at Pilot Grove. ~~Pall bearers were Joe Moore, Less Moore, Robert Moore, Ruby Maddox, Homer Jeffress and Aubrey Hull.~~

Mr. Donahue was born near Pilot Grove September 17, 1875.— Most of his life was spent in Cooper county, although he worked in the West for several years. Previous to coming to Boonville he lived on a farm near Syracuse.

Mr. Donahue married Miss Mabel S. Maddox September 29, 1907, and is survived by her and a daughter, Catherine. He also leaves a brother, James Donahue, of Bakersfield, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Moore, of Pilot Grove.

Mr. Donahue was an industrious and upright man and was highly regarded by everyone who knew him.
