

Marshall Weekly Democrat News
7 April 1927
Section 2, 2/4

Mrs. Virgil Huff who is closely confined to her home on account of her mother's invalidism, drove to Kansas City yesterday with friends and spent the day in the city, and enjoyed it very much. The mother, who has been entirely helpless since the stroke paralysis several months ago, remains about the same that she has been for sometime, but is confined to her bed constantly.

[From: Marshall Weekly Democrat News, 7 April 1927, (section 2), 2/4]

Mrs. Virgil Huff who is closely confined to her home on account of her mother's invalidism, drove to Kansas City yesterday with friends and spent the day in the city and enjoyed it very much. The mother who has been entirely helpless since the stroke paralysis several months ago remains about the same that she has been for sometime but is confined to her bed constantly.