

Boonville Advertiser
9 Dec 1927
9/1+2

OTTERVILLE

(Miss Jennie Lee Starke)

Mrs. T. E. Wherley planned a surprise birthday dinner for her husband Sunday, when she invited a number of relatives to spend the day in their home. A large birthday cake with forty-nine lighted candles, a gift of their aunt, Mrs. Etta Bohling, of Versailles, was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wherley, of near Sedalia; Mrs. Ophelia Cline, Mrs. Anna Kahrs, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Norris, of Otterville; Mrs. Etta Bohling, of Versailles; Plummer Kahrs and Dennis Kahrs, of Kansas City.

Mrs. G. C. Arni has returned from a few weeks visit with relatives at Davenport, Iowa, and Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Loyn, of Marshall, are parents of a son born at the home of Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank, of Otterville, Nov. 30, to whom they have given the name, James Robert. Mrs. Lyon will be remembered as Miss Laura Eubank.

Nolan P. Reed, of Little Rock, Ark., spent a few days the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, of near Otterville.

Virgel Scrivner, of Jefferson City, visited Otterville friends Sunday.

Senator and Mrs. J. H. Gunn spent Sunday in the home of John R. Gunn, of Versailles.

Miss Willa Agnes Witelg, of Sedalia, has been employed by the board of education of the Otterville consolidated public schools to teach the Brick school. The vacancy was caused by the resignation of Mrs. Louida Eberhart.

Mrs. Hubert Long, of Smithton, spent several days the past week with her sister, Mrs. Elmer Cline, who is recovering from a recent illness of pneumonia.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Ames, will be glad to know she is recovering from a minor operation which was undergone at her home in Otterville the past week.

D. B. Mayfield received a message Monday, telling of the critical illness of his grandmother, Mrs. Cora Cline, of Melissa, Tex.

Ed Hite, of New Lebanon community, came to Otterville Thursday to meet Mrs. Hite, who was returning from a hospital in Columbia, where she had been for treatment.

O. R. Hays, of Tipton, was a business visitor in Otterville Monday.

Miss Margaret Jenkins, assistant cashier in the Bank of Otterville, is enjoying a few days vacation with relatives at Sedalia.

Mrs. Lee Shannon, of Kansas City, is visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Norris.

Mrs. Charles Hirst and Mrs. Nona Lucas, of Kansas City, Kans., have returned from a visit with their mother, Mrs. Gusta Mason, and their sisters, Mrs. O. L. Homan and Mrs. Edgar Roesler.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henderson have moved from the property in Otterville known as the Joe Edward's property, to Smithton. Elmer Klein has recently bought this property in Otterville for $750. Mr. and Mrs. Klein and family will move from the J. B. Laws property, after repair work has been done to their property recently purchased.

Mrs. R. A. Smith, of Smithton, spent several days the past week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Homan.

At the regular meeting of the Otterville Chapter, Order Eastern Star, Thursday evening, the annual election of officers was held, with the following elective officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. W. G. Streit, Worthy Matron; W. S. Ponge, Worthy Patron; Mrs. H. Roger Starke, Associate Matron; Mrs. T. E. Wherley, Secretary; Miss Margaret Jenkins, Treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Gunn, conductress and Mrs. Lewis Zumsteg, associate conductress.

Miss Agnes Gentry is visiting relatives in Kansas City this week.

Mrs. C. D. Osborne is at home, after a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry Heck, of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rogers and family will move from east of Otterville to the late J. B. Laws property on north Boonville street.

Will Speaker and family, of Smithton, have moved to the property of the late Ed Speaker, on north Boonville St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Golladay and their nephew, John Golladay, motored to Warrensburg Sunday and visited with Miss Gwendolyn and Miss Dorothy Golladay, of the Warrensburg College.

The past Friday evening the Y. W. C. A. basketball team "The Amazons," and Y. M. C. A. team "The Demons," of Sedalia, met the Otterville high school basketball teams on the Otterville court, resulting in a score of 25 to 17 in favor of the Otterville girls' team and a score of 20 to 17 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. team.

On Friday evening, Dec. 9, the Tipton high school teams will meet the Otterville high school teams at Otterville. At the same time the Versailles town team will meet the Otterville town team, "The All Stars" on the Otterville court.

The date for the big Minstrel Show, given by the Otterville high school, has been changed from Dec. 9, to Dec. 16.

Mrs. Helen Edwards, of Kansas City, spent from Friday until Sunday with her father, Dr. R. E. Howlett, and her brother, A. N. Howlett, and Mrs. Howlett.

Frank Spencer, of Slater, motored to Otterville Monday, for a few days visit in the A. N. Howlett home.

Dr. Aubra Howard, of Slater, spent Sunday with Dr. R. E. Howlett.

William Ross accompanied by John Burnett and Tom Chambers, all of the Warrensburg College, spent Tuesday in the home of William's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ross.

H. D. Case has been suffering from a sprained ankle the past week, but is now able to get around by the aid of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Cline, of Sedalia, visited Mr. Cline's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Cline, Sunday evening

Case
Cline

Lon Kuykendoll, of near Houstonia but formerly of Otterville, visited in the home of his brother, Charles Kuykendoll, the first of the week.

Miss Margarete Miller, who formerly was employed in the Otterville telephone office, but has recently been employed at Sedalia, has returned to Otterville and has taken the work as operator at the telephone office.

The farm known as the John Samer farm, six miles east of Otterville, and owned by N. N. Leonard, has had repair work done, and is rented to J. J. Gargus of South Missouri.

The farmers elevator has had new flooring laid and other remodeling done to their scale. The lumber was bought of Wiley Reed and was sawed on his farm.

The Otterville Shipping Association shipped one load of hogs Tuesday.

Claude Bryan, of Kansas City, is spending this week in the home of his uncle, C. L. Bryan.