

The Farmington News
7 June 1929

1/6

CASE—RICKUS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rickus, in Farmington on last Sunday afternoon when their daughter, Dorothy Mary, became the bride of J. Eugene Case, of Otterville, Mo. The bride's pastor, Rev. E. M. Frenzel, officiated. Eugene Wood sang "Oh, Promise Me," after which the bridal party entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Rose Gross, of St. Louis. The ceremony was performed under a bower of roses which had been erected in the double doors of the living room. The bridal party consisted of Elise Rickus, maid of honor; Meta Schramm, bridesmaid; Amos Hardy, best man; Harry McLarney, groomsman; Adele Korte, flower girl.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Case left immediately for a honeymoon of a week after which they will go to Columbia where Mr. Case will attend the University this summer, working toward his Master's degree. They will be at home after September 1st at Webster Groves where Mr. Case will be a member of the faculty of the Webster Groves schools.

Out of town guests at the wedding were J. D. Case and daughters, Misses Alma, Amy and Mable, father and sisters of the groom, of Otterville, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Korte and daughter, Miss Adele; Mr. and Mrs. P. Klug and daughter, Miss Lillian, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hank and son, Mrs. A. H. Brehmer and son, Miss Rose Gross and Harry McLarney, of St. Louis; Mr. Nicholson and Mr. Wood, of Webster Groves, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Hollman and son, of Elvins, W. H. Ward, of Bonne Terre, and Mr. and Mrs. George Munsch, of Santa Monica, Calif.

This marriage is the happy culmination of a romance which had its beginning soon after Mr. Case came to Elvins two years ago to be a member of the faculty of the Elvins schools.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rickus. She graduated from Farmington high school with the class of 1922. Later, she attended the State Teachers College at Cape Girardeau for a year and had been teaching in Farmington schools for the past three years. She is a young lady of much charm of manner.

The News extends to Mr. and Mrs. Case hearty wishes for a long and prosperous wedded life.