

Miss Bonnie Baker Weds Clyde Nichols

Syracuse Girl Becomes Bride of Otterville Man in Ceremony
Solemnized Dec. 31

Clyde F. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Nichols of Otterville, and Miss Bonnie Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Baker, of Syracuse, were married at 11 o'clock Tuesday, Dec. 31, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Geo. Newkirk, pastor of the Syracuse Baptist church, officiated. Only members of the immediate families were present.

The bride is a graduate of the Syracuse High School, class of 1928 and the groom is a graduate of the Otterville High School class of 1926, and formerly a student at Westminster College, Fulton.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served and the following day a delicious dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Nichols. The happy couple are at the home of the bride-groom's parents for the present, but will reside south of Otterville.

James R. Figgins of Pilot Grove, Dies

Well Known Citizen Passed Away
Tuesday Night After Illness
Of Several Years

James R. Figgins died at his home in Pilot Grove about 12 o'clock midnight Jan. 7 following an illness of several years. He had been seriously ill for about a week preceding his death, which was not unexpected.

James Robinson Figgins was born in Cooper County near Pilot Grove Sept. 15, 1865 the son of the late Isaac and Minerva Figgins. On Nov. 9, 1892 he was married to Miss Janie R. Verts of Leesburg, Va. near Bell Air. His widow is his only immediate survivor, no children having been born to this union. A sister, Mrs. Joe Verts, died about nineteen years ago.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Pilot Grove Methodist church, South, of which Mr. Figgins was a member, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Thomas A. Huffine. Burial was at Pilot Grove.

Mr. Figgins was well known and highly regarded in his community where his gentle presence and retiring personality endeared him. The devotion of Mr. and Mrs. Figgins to one another was famous among their friends, and one was scarcely ever seen without the other. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mrs. Figgins.
