

B. F. Hayes, 66 Years Old, Dies

Boonville Restaurant Man Succumbs to Heart Attack—Was Prominent Odd Fellow

B. F. Hayes, Hayes Cafe proprietor, died at the Hayes apartments on Main Street—Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from a heart attack. Mr. Hayes had been ill for several weeks, but was not considered seriously so, and had been better for several days before his death. He was stricken with a heart attack in the bathroom and as he fell struck his head and failed to recover.

B. F. Hayes was born at Liberty, Mo., July 2, 1864. He was married to Miss Della Dever, who with six children survive. They are, Fred Hayes, Boonville; Guy Hayes, Alliance, Ohio; Misses Ora, Roxie and Mary Hayes, Boonville; Mrs. Gene Thompson, Liberty; two brothers, M. S. Hayes, Liberty; and R. W. Hayes, Slater; and two sisters, Mrs. Dora Hutchison, St. Louis; and Mrs. V. V. Samples, Oakland, Calif.

Funeral services were to be held at Liberty this (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with burial in the cemetery there.

Mr. Hayes was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and the Presbyterian church of Liberty. He was Past Grand Herald of the Odd Fellows of Missouri. Until the last ten years of his life, Mr. Hayes was a general contractor and builder after which he entered the restaurant business at Liberty and Marshall. He came to Boonville four years ago, and was associated in business here with his son, Martin, until the latter's death in 1928. Since that time he had been operating the Hayes Cafe.
