

Charles W. Cordry, 76, Dies Last Night

Well-Known Mt. Nebo Community
Resident Was Held In High Esteem.

Charles Walker Cordry, 76 years old, well known resident of the Mt. Nebo community, died at his home last night between 11 and 12 o'clock. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the New Lebanon Presbyterian church, followed by burial in the New Lebanon Cemetery.

Mr. Cordry was born in the community in which he spent his life time, Oct. 8, 1854, the son of the late William L. and Mary Ware Cordry. He was married to Miss Mollie Oglesby Dec. 28, 1879. Mrs. Cordry, with two children, survive. They are Mrs. May Turner and Frank Cordry of the home community.

Mr. Cordry was long a member of the Mt. Nebo Baptist church in which he served as deacon. He was a member of a well known Cooper County family and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.