August Muntzel Rites Held Last Thursday

Services Were Conducted By Rev.
A. A. Falke at Clark's Fork
Church

Funeral services for August J. Muntzel were held Thursday morning of last week at 10:30 o'clock, in charge of the Rev. A. A. Falke at Clark's Fork Lutheran church. Burial was made in the church cemetery. The prayer and Scripture reading at the home preceding the services were by the Rev. George Fielas of the Boonville Lutheran church. Pallbearers were Edward Prigge, Walter Prigge, Aurellus Schubert, Andrew Muntzel, Albert Klekamp, and Henry Grathwohl.

Mr. Muntzel died suddenly Tuesday morning May 17, of heart disease. He was born June 22, 1859, in Cooper County and was almost 73 years old at the time of his death. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Muntzel. His parents preceded him in death and he was never married. For the last eleven years he has made his home with his brother, Herman Muntzel, five miles south of Boonville. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. H. F. Prigge, St. Charles, Mrs. Charles Schubert, Clark's Fork, and by three brothers, John Muntzel of St. Louis, William of Boonville, and Herman, south of Boonville.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mrs. H. F. Prigge of St. Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Prigge of Chicago, and Walter Prigge of Wentzville.

Mrs. Mary McCarty of Pilot Grove Dies

Oldest Resident of Town Passed
Away at Home of Daughter
Thursday

Mrs. Mary McCarty, 93 years old, Pilot Grove's oldest resident, died Thursday, May 19, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Paxton, near Sedalia, where she had been visiting for the past three weeks. Although Mrs. McCarty had been in failing health for several years she had not been ill and death came unexpectedly in her sleep.

Mary Elizabeth Bowles, daughter of Margaret and Phillip Bowles, was born at Greenfield, Dade County, Missouri, Feb. 6, 1839, and with other members of the family came to Cooper County in 1865 and located near Speed. She was married in December, 1868, to Patrick McCarty, and lived on a farm near Speed and Bell Air until recent years when she moved to Pilot Grove to make her home with her daughter, Miss Kate McCarty.

Four children survive, Miss Kate, of the home, Mrs. W. S. Paxton, of near Sedalia, Charles McCarty of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Jessie Pare of Marshall. One child died in infancy and one son, John McCarty, died in 1923. A sister, Mrs. S. B. Muir, and one brother, B. J. Bowles, of Tulsa, Okla., twelve grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren also survive. Her husband died 26 years ago.

Mrs. McCarty was long a member of the Baptist church having become a member when she was 11 years old. Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Miss Kate McCarty, by the Rev. Thomas A. Huffine, and burial was made in Pilot Grove cemetery. Pallbearers were five grandsons, Vinell, Lewis, Eugene, and Roy Paxton, of Sedalia, Oscar Pare of Marshall, and William Schuster.
