

Mrs. Archie Cornines of Peninsula Dies

Young Wife and Mother Buried
At Salt Fork Church

Saturday

Mrs. Archie Cornine of the Peninsula community died at St. Joseph Hospital in Boonville Thursday evening, July 14, shortly after being taken there for treatment.

Flossie Rutledge was born March 14, 1909. October 6, 1928 she united in marriage with Archie Cornine. Two children were born to them, Elsie May, 3, and Archie, Jr., 3 weeks old, who with the husband and father survive.

Mrs. Cornine is also survived by her father and three aunts, Mrs. N. McLaughlin, Mrs. Dell McLaughlin, and Miss Alpha Rutledge.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Salt Fork in charge of the Rev. L. N. White of Fayette, a former pastor of Heath Creek Baptist church, assisted by Rev. B. F. Reed, present pastor. Mrs. Cornine was a consistent member of the Heath Creek church.

Mrs. Eliza Copas

Died Here Tuesday

Funeral Services Were Held Thursday at Home of Brother,

William T. Hurt

Mrs. Eliza Copas passed away at the home of her brother, William T. Hurt, at 303 Santa Fe Street, at 1:05 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Her husband W. B. Copas preceded her in death three years ago.

Eliza Hurt was born on October 12, 1859, near Washington school in the Clark's Fork community. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Hurt, and spent most of her early life near Lone Elm. She was married to William B. Copas of Jefferson City, and resided there until May 8, 1932, when she came to Boonville to make her home with her brother. April 27 was the beginning of her last illness.

Mrs. Copas was a member of the Presbyterian church. She is survived by three brothers, William and Silas Hurt of Boonville, and Ben F. Hurt, of Ginton.

Funeral services were held at the home of William Hurt, 303 Santa Fe Street at ten o'clock Thursday morning with burial in the New Zion cemetery, near Clarksburg. Rev. Jackson of Jefferson City conducted the services.
