

W. J. Tucker Died In Kansas City

Ten-Day Illness Fatal To Former Cooper County Man Wednesday.

W. J. Tucker died at his home in Kansas City Wednesday after an illness of about ten days. He was a native of this county and the only uncle of W. L. Nelson, Edgar C. Nelson, Lewis Nelson, T. A. Nelson, Albert Nelson and Clyde Nelson. Mrs. Tucker, who survives him, was Miss May Chambers daughter of the late G. E. Chambers of this county. Mr. Tucker was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Elizabeth and Ruth Chambers, who reside near Boonville. He had many relatives and a host of friends in this county. One daughter also survives him, Mrs. Norman Lewis of Centerville, South Dakota.

Funeral services will be held from the home in Kansas City Friday afternoon and burial will be in Mount Washington Cemetery in Kansas City.

Miss Ruth Chambers and her brother, C. E. Chambers of El Paso, Texas, left Thursday for Kansas City to attend the funeral. All six nephews will be present.

LAKOTA

(Mrs. George Martin)

The Rev. Elmo Purvis, of California, filled his appointments here at Oakland Baptist church, Saturday and Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Purvis and they were entertained both days by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fain.

Mrs. Eula Mae Northern, of Kansas City, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, and her aunt, Miss B. Martin.

Mrs. W. A. Williams returned home Sunday from a week's visit with relatives in Sedalla. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. W. H. Bond, who will remain until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vess Hall and son, Donald, and daughter, Lillian, of near Bunceton, spent from Saturday morning until Monday, in the home of his mother, Mrs. Mima Hall and family.

Douglas and Lee Birdsong, of east of Clarksburg, came Sunday to spend the week with their cousins, Herschel and Mack Lee, the young sons of their uncle, Floyd Lee and Mrs. Lee.

F. L. Burns of Kansas City, spent the week-end here, the guest of Leo Baker and family and George Martin and family.

Mrs. Elza Bales and sons, Jerdie and Donald Lee, of Kansas City, spent Saturday here, the guests of her brother, H. E. Gump and family.

Mrs. Mahala Schlup is reported as being on the sick list again. She was taken to a physician in Clarksburg Monday for examination and medical attention.

Misses Velda Gump and Elsie Nelle Williams and their uncle, W. A. (Billy) Williams, were dinner guests of and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stinson, near Tipton.

Mrs. Nellie Schlup of Kansas City

Mrs. Lawrence Dick had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dick and grandson, Raul Dick, of Cotton; Olin Zey and family and Mr. Melvina Allee.

George and William Kaiser, Fred Dick and Herman Brandes spent Sunday at the Bagnell dam and points of interest on the big lake front.

Luther Moore, of Kansas City, while here Sunday, took his brother, Oscar Moore, to St. Mary's hospital, in Jefferson City, for medical attention.

Mrs. W. H. Long, of Cotton, left Friday for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Brandenburg, Kent.

Don Newell and Miss Sarah Johnston, students of the school of osteopathy, at Kirksville, spent a few hours in the Wade Long home Friday, being enroute to their homes in Maine, and Virginia, to spend their summer vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Harris and son, Monroe, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kaiser, attended a "Homecoming," held Sunday at the M. E. church in Bunceton. A large crowd was present to enjoy the all day service, two fine sermons, and the abundant dinner. Mrs. Harris informs the writer that a fine 2-inch rain fell in Bunceton in the afternoon, but when about half way home they encountered the familiar dusty roads.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Martin had as their guests Saturday night and Sunday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Wilson and also her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilson, of near Columbia.

Howard Carpenter received a bad cut on his right forearm while working with a threshing machine Monday. He was taken to the Boonville hospital on Friday, where the injured arm was cared for.

NEW LEBANON

Miss Johnnie Kirkpatrick, who is attending school at Teachers College at Warrensburg spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Kirkpatrick, near Bunceton.

Mrs. E. B. Windsor visited from Tuesday until Sunday at Boonville with her son, Edward Windsor, and family.

Dr. Ashby Hite of Greenidge visited Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayfield and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hite.

Mrs. Linwood Shrout of Slater and Miss Kathryn Long of St. Louis spent the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Long.

Miss Mary Lee Rothgeb spent the week-end on a camping trip with Senator and Mrs. J. H. Gunn of Otterville, who entertained a party of girls in honor of their niece, Miss Mary Eleanor Mitchaells of Sedalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goode and Minor Goode of Otterville were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Less Hogan.

Miss Ruth Elliston of Smithton came Tuesday for a week's visit with Miss Earlene Mayfield.

Mrs. Ella Palmer of Tipton spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cole and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Lane and children of Bunceton and Miss Lottie Layne went to Eldon Sunday where they visited Dr. and Mrs. John Layne. Misses Lottie and Dorothy Layne remained for a week's visit in the John Layne home.

Miss Ruth Hays of Pilot Grove spent the week-end with Miss Helen

FORMER BOONVILLE MAN DIES AT 104 IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City (Special) Wm. M. Painter, was buried here Tuesday. He died Sunday.

The centurian was born near Boonville in 1829 and served under General Sterling Price in the Civil War.

Painter

BILLINGSVILLE

(Henry Hoflander)

The annual Billingsville picnic will be held at the usual place on Wednesday, Aug. 2. Everybody invited.

Miss Virginia Stegner of Kansas City is spending a several weeks vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stegner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schwartz and baby visited with relatives at California from Sunday until Monday.

Henry Wassmann and Ernest Williams, carpenters, have the contract for building a new house at Marshall.

Miss Joan Bennett of Kansas City is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stegner.

Miss Marle Hall of New Franklin was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hilden on Monday.

Mrs. Roger Veits was suffering from a badly infected foot caused by stepping into a rusty nail the early part of this week but is improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Friedrich and Walter Branch were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Branch west of Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hein spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Torbeck.

Miss Kathryn Koenig, who is in the Daily-News Advertiser subscription contest will appreciate any voluntary assistance given her in the campaign. Coupons or subscriptions may be turned in to her at the Billingsville store. (adv)

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Muntzel entertained the following guests at dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cochran and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Neubauer of Boonville; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grathwohl; Misses Elsie and Corine Grathwohl, Carl Grathwohl, Louis Gelger and John Atkinson.

L. W. Helmreich of Jefferson City visited here with the family of Mrs. T. Grathwohl on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKinzie and son of Chilhowee, Mo., Mrs. Clarence McKinzie and son, Billy Eugene, of Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zahringer of Pilot Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hein and son, Harold Edwin, of Lone Elm, were week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wassmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesselman of Marshall were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grathwohl.

Mr. and Mrs. Urban Dumoit and baby of Boonville and Miss Grace Moore were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dumoit, Sr.

Miss Myrtle Bryan of Speed spent Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryan.

PLEASANT GREEN

(Mrs. W. B. Woolery)

Among those from here to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens of near Smithton were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stephens and daughter, Miss

Tucker