Descendants of Dan Smith In Reunion

A family reunion of the descendants of Daniel Smith was held at the home of F. B. Todd Sunday, Oct. 13. This farm, near Pilot Grove, is a part of a large parcel which Daniel Smith received as government grant in 1835. All the known living descendants of Daniel Smith were present except Mrs. Henry Simmons, Denver, Colo., Mrs. Ethel Chamberlain, San Francisco, Calif., and Miss Helen Bradford of Texas. Those present were:

Miss Dea Smith, a granddaughter of Daniel Smith, who is 83 years old, and the following great grandchildren and great great grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, daughter, Miss Susan, and son, Charles, Marshall, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, son, Charles, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Owen Cordry, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Cole, Bunceton; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Todd, sons, Jack and Billy, of the home.

Other guests were: Miss Mary Ann Barron, Marshall, Mo.; W. D. Cole, and son, Carl, Mt. Nebo; and Edward Brown of Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Todd and sons are the fourth and fifth generations to live on this farm.
