

VERSAILLES LEADER

29 Nov 1935 4/5

Otterville

By Mrs. E. T. Wear

(Phone or send news items to above correspondent.)

→ Mrs. Bettie Bishop died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Glenn, November 20, after an illness of about two weeks. Mrs. Bishop was seventy-one years of age on October 13. She leaves the following children: Mrs. Joe Arnold, Clifton City, Mrs. Bertha Glenn, Asa, Dan and Ed Bishop and Mrs. George Oswald of Otterville, Jess Bishop of Tipton, Everett Bishop, Turpin, Oklahoma, also thirty-six grandchildren and three great grandchildren; three brothers, J. L. McCulloch of Jefferson City, Ben and Vest McCulloch of Tipton. Mrs. Bishop, realizing her critical condition, made arrangements for the funeral services which were held Friday afternoon. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery beside her husband and two daughters, Julia and Velma, who passed away several years ago. Mrs. Bishop and family had lived in the Otterville community the past 26 years.

✓ Mrs. Sallie McNeil of Sedalia was a guest of Mrs. Sallie Smith over the week end.

Paul Ross spent the week end at Columbia.

Mrs. Amanda Bell fell twice the past week. Mrs. Bernice Mills returned home to care for her grandmother.

Miss Mary Nichols spent the week end with homefolks.

→ Miss Cate of Boonville visited over the week end with her uncle, H. D. Case and family.

Rev. S. G. McCluney of Knobnoster filled his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edwards entertained Rev. and Mrs. McCluney.

→ Ardee Bane returned last Tuesday from Chicago where he had been in the veterans' hospital the past two months and a half.

→ Loren Bane came home Thursday from Florida. He was employed by Ringling Bros. circus at Sedalia and continued with them until they into winter quarters at Miami, Fla. He came back through Kentucky.

→ Mrs. Joe Retherford spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Daisy Schlotzhauer of Pleasant Green, who was critically ill. Mrs. Schlotzhauer died Sunday and services were held at Pleasant Green Tuesday.