

Mrs. Jas. Stephens Rites Held Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. James Stephens, 74, were held Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church in Clarksburg, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Nelson.

Mrs. Stephens died at her home at Clarksburg last Thursday after a serious illness of only a few days, although she had been in poor health for some time.

She is survived by her husband and two children, Mrs. A. D. Hayes of Tipton, and Rolla Stephens of Clarksburg; three grandchildren; and three brothers, one of whom is Rolla Peeler of Los Angeles, formerly of Boonville.

Kathyleen Cantlow, Virginia Vanstratton, Emma May Bickberg and Oleo Vanstratton served as flower girls at the services. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery at Clarksburg.
