

Patrick Shine Rites Held At Sedalia

Patrick Shine, 51, former Boonville resident, died at a veteran's hospital in Chicago Sunday morning according to word received here by his brother, George Shine.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's Church in Sedalia.

Mr. Shine is survived by two brothers, George Shine of Boonville and Jerry N. Shine, St. Louis, and by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Carey of Sedalia and Mrs. T. M. Saunders of Sedalia.

Mr. Shine, who left Boonville about 20 years ago, was employed by the Vanatta Tin Shop while here. He is a veteran of the World War having served as a sergeant in the 129th Field Artillery in the 35th Division during the conflict.

MRS. GRIFFITH IS AUNT OF CLAUDE E. STONE, JR.

Mrs. Roy E. Griffith of Boonville also is an aunt of Claude E. Stone, Jr., former resident of the Pleasant Green community, and now assistant manager of a Montgomery Ward store at Salina, Kansas, who was wounded by a former employe who also shot and killed the manager of the store and then killed himself Dec. 5. Stone is reported to be recovering.

Stone was born and reared at Pleasant Green and his parents now live at Tipton. Other relatives in Cooper County include C. W. Pollard, his grandfather; Ray E. Pollard, an uncle; and Mrs. W. B. Woolery of Pleasant Green, an aunt.

3 COUPLES GET LICENSES

Three marriage licenses have been issued at the office of the Cooper county recorder since Friday, Dec. 6. Licenses have been issued to the following:

Paul W. Biggs, Nelson, and Kathryn Enos, Nelson; to William E. Childers, Fayette, and Ganelle Robb, Fayette; and to William E. Spurling, Moberly, and Anna L. Reichart, California, Mo.

The first two couples were married immediately after they procured their licenses by Probate Judge W. L. Koenig.

ELEVEN NOVEMBER BABIES

Eleven babies were born in Boonville during the month of November, Dr. D. E. Hooper, local registrar of vital statistics, reported Thursday.

Birth certificates are being issued for the 11 youngsters, Dr. Hooper said. If the names of babies born in Boonville during the month of November do not appear on this list, parents should communicate at once with the attending physician.

Births recorded for November are listed as follows: Wendell Martin Brewer, Gregory Asa Phelps, James Henry Tutt, Lou May Robinson, Gerald Warner Wing, Donald Eugene Scott, Suzanne Ellen Retherford, Brent Harrison Cochran, Oscar James Schlotzhauer, George William Blankenship and Sylvia Jean Gulick.
