

1/5

John S. Case Died Tuesday

Funeral Services for Aged
Resident to be at Hershberger
Chapel

John S. Case, 84 years old, for many years a Marshall resident, died at 4 o'clock yesterday evening at his home, 1224 South Conway.

Funeral services will be held at the Hershberger Funeral Chapel at 2 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in the Shiloh cemetery. The body will remain at the funeral home until the hour for the service.

John Stephen Case was born February 23, 1856, at Monroe, Wis. He was married to Margaret Harris, who survives him. Other survivors are five sons, Sam Case, John Case, Henry Case, and Charley Case of Marshall, and Frank Case of Nelson; four daughters, Mrs. Patsy McAllister and Mrs. Cora Perkins of Marshall, Mrs. Myrtle King of Jefferson City and Mrs. Josie Clark of Kansas City; three brothers, Eltzn Case of Nelson, Charley Case of Sedalia, and Hiram Case of Otterville; twenty granddaughters, eleven grandsons, and two great grandchildren.

Case

