

Saline Co Citizen
Marshall, MO
2 Jan 41

1/2

John S. Case Died Tuesday

Funeral Services for Aged
Resident to be at Hershberger
Chapel

John S. Case, 84 years old, for many years a Marshall resident, died at 4 o'clock Tues. evening at his home, 1224 South Conway.

Funeral services were held at the Hershberger Funeral Chapel at 2 p. m. Thursday. Burial was in the Shiloh cemetery.

John Stephen Case was born February 23, 1856, at Monroe, Wis. He was married to Margaret Harris, who survives him. Other survivors are five sons, Sam Case, John Case, Henry Case, and Charley Case of Marshall, and Frank Case of Nelson; four daughters, Mrs. Patsy McAllister and Mrs. Cora Perkins of Marshall, Mrs. Myrtle King of Jefferson City and Mrs. Josie Clark of Kansas City; three brothers, Elizah Case of Nelson, Charley Case of Sedalia, and Hiram Case of Otterville; twenty granddaughters, eleven grandsons, and two great grandchildren.

Case

McMahon
Sapp

Linn Grove School

Miss Mabel McMahon met with the pupils of Linn Grove School Monday, December 16, and organized a 4-H hot lunch club. Each of the six members was weighed and measured for height. All were near normal.

The following officers were elected: Alice Louise Sapp, president; J. W. Berger, vice-pres., Wilma Jean Dennis, secretary; Cleo Meadors, song leader; Alice May Fizer, reporter. Henry Fizer is a club member.

All are looking forward to some good hot lunches after the Christmas vacation.—Club reporter.