

W. J. Smith Rites At Clark's Chapel

NEW FRANKLIN—Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at Clark's Chapel for William Jackson Smith, Howard county farmer who died at his home five miles southeast of Fayette Saturday afternoon. His death was unexpected.

The Rev. Frank M. Wright, pastor of the Fayette Christian church, conducted the rites.

Mr. Smith is survived by his widow, one son, Earl Smith of Blackwell, Okla., and one sister, Mrs. Earl Blankenbaker of Howard county.

Mr. Smith was born in Howard county—Nov. 24, 1879. He was married to Miss Annie Maud Arbuckle June 14, 1905. He was a member of the Fayette Christian church. Three sisters preceded him in death.