

John Haley Weds Roberta Stewart

Miss Roberta Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stewart of Colorado Springs, was married on Monday, May 6, to Nelson Gundry Haley of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haley of Clark's Fork. The ceremony was performed in the Stewart home before the fire which was banked with ferns and palms, and lighted with burning tapers. The Rev. Dr. Edward of the Methodist church officiated. Mrs. Grover Scott, sister of the bride, and R. W. Mills, Jr., of Clark's Fork, were the attendants. The bride wore a white lace trimmed chiffon gown with a short train and a finger tip veil. Mrs. Stewart, mother of the bride, wore a longer length gown of lace, trimmed black chiffon. Sixty people were guests at a reception following the ceremony. The centerpiece for the dining table was a cutglass bowl shaped like a ship, filled with pink roses and white peas. Burning white tapers were at each end. Ice cream, and wedding cake, both decorated with pink rosebuds, were served. Mr. and Mrs. Haley spent the weekend with his parents in Clark's Fork, after a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haley entertained at dinner Sunday in their honor. They left that afternoon for Chicago where they will make their home. Mr. Haley is employed as Sales Representative for Harris-Seybold Potter Company of Chicago.
